

In the US District Court For East Tx at Tyler

USA v. Yoo

6:18-CR-16

Notice of unlawful forfeiture/motion to reverse forfeiture.

Notice of perjury and prosecutorial misconduct

Motion to vacate conviction.

On 2018 0926, Coan, on his response to my motion for malicious, vindictive, retaliatory prosecution (dkt #101), Coan stated that the certified notice for the four firearm's "seeking administrative forfeiture" was sent to Gregg County Jail on 2018 0927.

Well, he didn't. He lied. Neither I nor the jail has received the notice.

Administrative.

The forfeiture was unlawful. The forfeiture must be reversed. The conviction should be vacated. This case must be dismissed with prejudice.

My malicious prosecution relief should be granted.

Notice of potential argument.

To the best of my knowledge, my parents told me I was actually conceived in Michigan and my parents went back, ~~to~~ while 4 months into pregnancy. to Korea.

If there is any argument that I should have been a citizen due to conception in a prolife state counts as birth, well I don't know such argument exists or is possible since the court and the prosecution deprived my 6th A right to law library.
